

North Carolina Department of Public Safety

Emergency Management

March 4, 2015

On behalf of the State Emergency Response Commission, I am pleased to inform you that the below Local Emergency Planning Committees have been reviewed and declared an active entity as of January 16, 2015. They are afforded all the rights and privileges accordingly.

Alamance	Cumberland	Hoke	RAP
Alexander	Currituck	Iredell	Richmond
Alleghany	Dare	Jackson	Robeson
Anson	Davidson	Johnston	Rockingham
Ashe	Davie	Lee	Rowan
Beaufort	Duplin	Lincoln	Rutherford
Bladen	Durham	Macon	Sampson
Brunswick	EBCN	Madison	Scotland
Burke	Edgecombe	McDowell	Stanly
Cabarrus	Forsyth	Mecklenburg	Stokes
Caldwell	Franklin	Montgomery	Surry
Camden/Pasquotank	Gaston	Moore	Swain
Carteret	Gates	Nash	Toe River
Caswell	Graham	New Hanover	Transylvania
Catawba	Granville	Northampton	Union
Chatham	Greene	Onslow	Vance
Cherokee	Guilford	Orange	Wake
Chowan/Perquimans	Halifax	Pender	Warren
Clay	Harnett	Person	Watauga
Cleveland	Haywood	Pitt	Wayne
Columbus	Henderson	Polk	Wilkes
Craven/Pamlico	Hertford	Randolph	Wilson
			Yadkin

Your LEPC is vital to North Carolina's emergency response capabilities. We pledge to work with you and assist you in keeping the citizens of your jurisdiction safe and secure. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to ask.

Respectfully,

Frank L. Perry
Chairman, State Emergency Response Commission

